

Veterans Informed To Secure, Fill Out Eligibility Slips

Suggestions Outlined In Class Schedule Book

Prior to reporting on registration day, veterans should comply with the following suggestions as listed in the Class Schedule book:

If you have been previously enrolled in training under the Veterans' Administration, but are not enrolled in any course of education or training:

1) Secure a supplemental Certificate of Entitlement and Eligibility from your VA Regional Office by submitting a request through the school or job where last in training.

2) If located in the San Francisco Region, submit a change of address to the San Francisco Regional Office, if and when you change your address.

3) If located in any office other than the San Francisco Regional Office, submit a change of address. If you do not have a San Francisco address, you may use the college's address.

TRAINING PROCEDURE

If you are currently in training under the VA, do the following upon completion of your present training:

1) Be sure to interrupt your training through your present training facilities by submitting VA Form 7-1908, if you are transferring here from another institution or if you are not returning for the Spring semester (applies only to men enrolling by transfer or those not returning here for Spring semester).

2) Follow all the suggestions set down in the preceding paragraphs.

Disabled Veterans previously approved under Public Law No. 16:

CONTACT VA OFFICE

1) If you have been declared in need of Vocational Rehabilitation and Training, contact your local VA office and request that they secure the acceptance of your case in the San Francisco Regional Office of the VA.

2) If you have a compensable disability and have not been declared in need of Vocational Rehabilitation but desire training under this law, apply for necessary processing well in advance of entrance date.

The above section does not apply to "G. I. Bill" veterans.

All veterans attending school under Public Law 346 who are NOT planning to enroll for the Spring term should report to the office of the registrar to fill out Form 7-1908. This should be done before January 28.

Naval Training Given in Summer

Freshmen and sophomores may take naval training during summer vacations, receive $90 to $100 a month and qualify for Naval Reserve commissions.

This Reserve Officer Candidate program, beginning next summer, requires no military training during the school year.

Two summer training courses of six weeks each are required. The training for California men will be given at San Diego.

During the first summer candidates will receive $90 per month, during the second summer $100 per month. Quarters, subsistence, uniforms, medical attention and transportation will be furnished.

Are you eligible?

For full details contact the Naval Reserve Recruiting Office, Room 8, Federal Office Building, San Francisco; Market 1-3828, extension 380.

Soprano Stars In Musicales

Music for small wind, brass and string groups is scheduled for 8:15 p.m., Wednesday in Frederic Burk Auditorium. Conducted by Edwin Kruth, instructor of music, the program is open to the public.

Soprano Audrey Morris is the vocalist who will appear at the event. She will be accompanied by both clarinet and piano, according to Kruth.

Co-sponsors for the evening are the Music Federation and the Division of Creative Arts. Under the same auspices two other musicales were heard this week. These featured tenor Greg O'Berry in his Senior Recital Monday night, and the College Symphony of 75 musicians Tuesday night.

White Plays in Concert

First in a series of four concerts featuring Raymond L. White, professor of music at State, will be heard at 8:30 p.m., January 18, in Calvary Presbyterian Church, Fillmore and Jackson Streets.

Free to the public, the program will highlight compositions of J. S. Bach. White will be joined by the Motet Choir of the church in this performance.

Pre-Programming Rush Subsidizes

Cards Given Out To Restore Order In Waiting Lines

No casualties have been reported from this week's pre-programming rush.

A few undernourished students who stood in line most of the day last Monday, have completely recovered.

These early-birds had seen their advisers, received their class cards and schedules, and had planned to beat the mob. As everyone seemed to harbor the same idea, a few slight difficulties arose. For a while it seemed that the doors of the Counseling Office would take leave of their hinges.

But order was regained; numbered cards were issued to insure each student of his proper place in line. By late Monday afternoon, the great stampede was a thing of the past.

Lines of not more than fifty students stood quietly waiting turn. This same system continued on through the week. Of course, some sections of classes were not open till this morning, but except for the few who must make slight program adjustments, pre-programming is over... until next semester!

MIX-UP EXPLAINED

Reginald Bell, dean of student personnel and guidance, explained the pre-programming mix-up thusly:

"State has severely limited classroom facilities. When a class becomes filled there is, as a rule, no way to open a new section because there is no room available."

"If pre-programming were not instituted, students would not know until the first day a class is held whether he could be admitted."

"In pre-programming, a careful check must be made from hour to hour on students registering in practically all classes. There seems to be no easy or quick way to do this."

"The procedure used during this week was an initial attempt to get the students signed up and admitted to their chosen classes as quickly and efficiently as possible."

"The administration worked hard to iron out the kinks and is working right now on many revisions to improve the procedure next semester. Suggestions on ways to speed up the procedure will be welcomed."

Burton Returns! --But Gators Lose

In a game marked by the return to action of ailing Johnny Burton, San Jose State edged the Gators, 57-51, last Tuesday on the Spartans' home court.

Burton tired in the second half from lack of practice, after scoring 13 points, and left the floor amid a tremendous ovation from the 2500 fans. Angelo Maestri paced State with 17 points.

Bulletin Board To Make Showing

Plans for a giant bulletin board on the campus are now under way. Mardi Schwarz, activity chairman of State's National Students Association, said this week.

The bulletin board is slated to make its appearance early in the Spring semester.

Arrangements for a complete coverage of on and off campus activities are being planned by a special activities committee, Miss Schwarz stated.

George Allen, member-at-large and chairman of NSA, disclosed that a drive to enlarge the organization and give interested students a chance to participate are being planned.

May Teach Esperanto

If the Language Arts Division receives a student's petition within the next few weeks, it will consider including Esperanto in the regular curriculum, according to Dr. Somerville Thomson, Division chairman.

FRANCISCAN

Drive Starts For Journal

Franciscan sales executives are making extensive plans this week for an all-out campaign beginning on the first day of registration for the Spring semester.

At that time a booth will be located near one of the registration lines and as nearly as possible every potential buyer will be contacted with regard to purchasing the 1949 Franciscan.

The yearbook sales quota has not been met as this issue goes to press. Franciscans are being sold for $3 with Student Body card and $4 without. Payments may be made in part or in full.

Commemorating State's Golden Anniversary, the book this year will contain various pictures illustrating activities celebrating this event. In addition, an effort is being made to include complete pictorial coverage of all student and faculty activities.

DISTRIBUTE POSTERS

Posters will be distributed throughout the campus to acquaint newcomers to State with the aims and progress of the yearbook.

Plans are being made to obtain one of the bulletin boards in College Hall to post a progress chart. February graduates, 140 in number, started posing for the camera yesterday in the Rotunda on the second floor of Anderson Hall.

Pictures will be taken today between the hours of 10 and 2, and also Monday at the same time. Anyone who is unable to meet the schedule for a picture is urged to appear at the designated spot Monday and an arrangement will be made for a new appointment.

GIVEN CONTRACT

Art Malliar, of the Malliar Portrait Studios, has been given the contract for the graduates' photos. Individual pictures may be purchased by the dozen or in smaller amounts from the Malliar Studio, according to the prescribed cost. A fee of 50 cents is required of graduates for their photo in the Franciscan.

Staff members wish to thank Audrey Forney, Jean Mahrt and the officers of their respective classes for their assistance.

Donahue Made Queen at Prom

Blonde Rosemary Donahue was crowned "Queen of the Ball" at the Junior Prom last Friday night in the Fairmont Hotel.

Miss Donahue was sponsored by Alpha Omega and Phi Epsilon Mu. She received the majority of the votes in the contest.

Slate Music Fed Election

Music Federation elections will be held from 9-4 next Wednesday in the Fed office, Annex B.

BIG FIGHT TALK—"We can't beat him, kid. Told yuh before, he's a tramp," or such are the general sentiments of Tom Murphy, "Paddy Riley"; Al Anderson, "Duke Manning"; Bill Witt, contender "Billy Chaney"; and Ed Surrani, "Jeff Pickard," in "Fool Kid," an original play by Stater Terry Kilpatrick. The show will run tonight and tomorrow night in Frederic Burk Auditorium in conjunction with the plays "He" and "The Bathroom Door."

DEBATES PLANNED

Speakers' Bureau Returns to State

Having received the approval of the Board of Directors, the Speakers' Bureau returns to the State campus this year after more than eight years absence.

Headed by Wendell Lathrop and under the sponsorship of Mrs. Eleanor Bushnell, the 22 members meet each Wednesday at 4 p.m. in Hut 1-A.

Currently the group is preparing for a series of debates with local colleges on the subject of Federal aid to education. Late this year the organization hopes to send a debate team and several orators to a conference in McMinnville, Ore.

Students interested in joining the Speakers' Bureau can get more information from Dr. Bushnell or Wendell Lathrop.

Positions Open On Publications

The following staff positions are open on the Golden Gate and the Franciscan, it was announced this week by the Board of Publications: Associate Editor (make-up, page 1) and photo editor on the Golden Gate; senior class editor and section assistants on the Franciscan.

In addition, the positions of assistant business manager, assistant ad manager and vacancies for ad salesmen are yet to be filled.

Interested students are requested to submit petitions for these jobs to members of the Board of Publications, Hut 4-B, by February 12.

MARCH OF DIMES

Contribute Now To Fight Polio

The March of Dimes Drive is officially open, as three campus organizations are sponsoring a vigorous campaign to meet the College's $250.00 quota, according to Ward Carr, general chairman of the drive.

According to present plans, the Women's Athletic Association is in charge of assessing the various campus organizations, while Phi Epsilon Mu, men's service honor society, promotes numerous campus contests.

Sporting and social events will be covered by members of the Block S Society. Included are tonight's boxing matches at City College and the two coming basketball games with Chico State.

"Everyone should take an active part in putting the March of Dimes Drive over," Carr said. "By so doing, you may save some one's life, and who knows but that it may be your own?"

A thermometer, built by Gene Fackler, will be set up outside the Snack Bar to register sales.

File Photographs With Registrar

Students who have not filed photographs of themselves in the registrar's office should do so before Spring registration, Miss Florence Vance, registrar, reported this week.

The picture should be a 2x3 copy. A photographer will be in Hut 3-A, February 7-8, she stated. "But," Miss Vance added, "we would appreciate having it done before registration."

EAR-MARKED

Board Gets State Funds

Ear-marking of funds, student body election, and social security, were the main topics of discussion at the Tuesday meeting of the Board of Directors.

The ear-marked funds turned in by campus organizations were presented by Associated Students' treasurer, Hank Marscheck, and approved by the Board.

They are $883.90 from the Men's Athletics, to be placed in the light fund; $981.94 from Publications Surplus, to be allocated to the Franciscan fund, Alligator, and the photography supplies; $82.22 from WAA, to be put in the general student body fund; and $781.94 of the Health Fund to be placed in a special savings account.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS

This made a total of $2730.00 ear-marked funds. The sum of $1704 from the "Rock" received approval to be used for capital improvements.

The Board voted to hold the election of student body officers on April 8. A student body dance will be held that night to announce election results.

WORK OUT PLAN

Discussion of a pension and welfare plan for Associated Students employees was headed by Charles A. Roumasset, administrator of student affairs, and George Allen, member-at-large. The only method of receiving social security would be to pick out key, permanent employees and work a plan around them.

Next Edition Out Registration Day!

Today's issue of the Golden Gate will mark the last one of the Fall term. Next edition of the paper will appear Registration Day, Monday, Feb. 7.

BOARD GIVES APPROVAL

Toni Robinson, member-at-large, announced that the college administration had approved State's participation with the Campus Magazine.

This publication contains news and stories from all participating colleges. The Board also gave its approval.

Reports from NSA and the World Student Service Fund were given by George Allen, member-at-large. It was voted to subscribe to two NSA pamphlets.

Changes Listed In New Booklet

Changes have been made in the class schedule book, according to Miss Florence Vance, registrar. She advises students to take note of the following alterations:

PE 54 ABCD—Tuesday, 7-9, changed to PE 54 A; PE 54 ABCD—Wednesday, 7-9, changed to PE 54 BCD; Math 135—Tuesday and Thursday, 2:10-3:25, changed to MWF, 12:10, Rm. A-123; Chem 9—Tuesday, 11:10, changed to Tuesday 12:10, Rm. A-123; Art 30-130 ABCD, Tuesday and Thursday, 2:10-5, formally three units, now two units.

The following courses have been added to the Spring Curriculum: Education 341 B—Tuesday and Thursday, FB Rm. 212; Education 152, 4 p.m., section five on Tuesdays and Section six on Thursdays; Education 270, Monday and Wednesday, 5-6:30.

Other schedule changes include: Russian 2, MWF, changed to MWF, 12:10; Business 60 B—section 1, MWF, 11:10, changed to Business 60A; Sociology 65—MWF, 11:10, changed to Sociology 165; English 290, Directed Study in Literature, to Literary Interpretation.

Stater Pens Ring Saga

Heading the list of three workshops plays which will be presented tonight and tomorrow night at 8:30 in Frederic Burk Auditorium is an original drama by State student Terry Kilpatrick.

Titled "Fool Kid," it is directed by Norm Bartold. The play is set in the tense atmosphere of a fighter's dressing room just before the main bout. It concerns itself with the psychological interplay between a blustering egotist and a bluff, good-hearted ex-pug.

GRIPPING DRAMA

A gripping drama of mutiny and brutality upon an ice-bound whaling boat is brought to the workshop stage in Tim Haggerty's production of "He."

LIGHTER VEIN

The only play in a lighter vein is the G. E. Jennings play, "The Bathroom Door," under the direction of Joe Flynn. A bathroom door is mysteriously locked and various theories are put forth as to the reason why it is locked.

Cast members are: Jack Geary, Bill Wilcox, Ralph Tarleton, Betty June Glass, Jeanette Berta and Bob Kalk.

Tickets are on sale in College Hall and at the College Theatre Box Office. Price is 25 cents with student body card and 40 cents without.

Downey Reports Jobs Available

Good employment opportunities are awaiting qualified students, according to Miss Alma Downey, director of student and graduate employment service.

This week's openings include: room and kitchen privileges for a woman in exchange for caring for a 7-year-old child three evenings a week; an East Bay recreation department wants a man or woman for afternoon work three days a week; a business firm wants a woman to file.

There is an opening on-campus for some one who can take short hand; and an orphanage wants a woman to lead recreation classes from 3-4:30 p.m. and 6-8:30 p.m. on week days and 1-4 p.m. on Saturdays in exchange for room, board, laundry and $50 a month.

The applicant should have some recreation background, but no experience is necessary.

Pick Ex-Staters For Production

Bert Brauer and Jim Haran, former members of College Theatre, have been cast in Stanford University's production of "The Hairy Ape," by Eugene O'Neill.

Haran plays the second lead in the O'Neill opus and Brauer has a minor role.

Brauer also appeared in a workshop production of "The Southerners" in December. While at State he appeared in such plays as "Beggar on Horseback" and "Twelfth Night."

Haran appeared in "The Male Animal" and "Night of January 16," plus several workshop plays.

Sorority Offers Scholarships

Phi Lambda Chi, service sorority, is offering its bi-annual scholarship to a female student who has more than 30 units.

Applications should be submitted to the office of the Dean of Women by next Friday.

The scholarship will be awarded February 4. Anyone interested is requested to apply at the Office of the Dean of Women.

EDITORIALS

Alter Programming Schedule

The atmosphere of College Hall last Monday morning was slightly reminiscent of war-time chow halls, cigar stores and nylon counters. Whichever forces of nature, human, or otherwise, were responsible for the congestion that morning, no one seems to know. The scramble was temporarily alleviated when the 200-odd students were given numbered cards and told to come back some other day. The resulting gripes echoed from one musty corner of College Hall to the other.

The puzzling thing in the entire hassle was the reason for the change. Has it become axiomatic that anything which works efficiently around here must be changed? From the student view point programming has not been a mad scramble in recent times. Why the change?

Many students have been disappointed, this week, by finding classes they need closed when they had beaten their way to Room 105. Time was lost in rearranging programs and patience went to the winds in trying to work through a programming routine which, though signifying change, does not necessarily constitute progress.

The assembly line aspects of the General Education program should be oiled up a bit before they are applied to the entire student body. If the past week is an indication of what will take place in the future, mass processing of programs will be a painful experience for students, regardless of savings made elsewhere.—E. E.

The HEP-PER SIDE

By LUISA HEP-
PER

Emphasis of the fast-waning Fall semester has been upon a smattering of varied musical affairs. The sad part of such worthwhile events is that most Music Alley inhabitants (others, too) are so busy with last-minute studying for final exams, together with pre-programming difficulties, graduation and recuperation from jamming until the New Year dawn, that they cannot attend the events, which are often the results of several months' preparation.

Proposed solution: Although an activities calendar has been established in the past, it seems that nothing ever happens when it should. "Circumstances beyond our control" always manage to creep in, causing disadvantageous discord.

To allow students to hear the performing soloists and ensembles, more thought should be given to scheduled musicales. Larger and more appreciative audiences certainly would result—encouragement to both artists and followers. This also would eliminate crowded-in rehearsals and the edgy tempers which go with them.

The very audible hope of the Music Alley citizens thus has been voiced publicly.

Two fine programs not done too often at State were the Senior Recitals, held this month. First of these affairs featured mezzo-soprano Patricia Frank, whose warm voice was heard in Frederic Burk Auditorium last week. (Why hasn't something soft been done for those uncomfortable seats?)

To those Music Alley colleagues who presented Pat with the thoughtful and heartfelt bouquet of roses, a very happy Hepper rating of four golden chimes. This is the type of spirit which exemplifies the sincerity and genuine interest of the hard-working music majors and minors at State College. They are examples of the best of the friendly spirit for which the institution is known.

Tenor Greg O'Berry, who has heard this week in Serman Clay's Steinway Hall, wins the Hepper Side nomination for the most voice improvement in the shortest time.

Besides maintaining a high scholastic average, coupled with the responsibilities of a growing family, Greg has found time to build high his vocal range, expression, power and flexibility. Evidence of this has been noticed markedly during the past year.

Greg is the soloist on "The Quiet Hour," a religious half-hour featured nightly at 7:30 on Radio Station KROW.

Dorothy Metzner and George Covell as accompanists for Pat and Greg, respectively, should not be overlooked. Without a sympathetic and capable accompanist, even a well-trained singer can go wrong.

Although these two Senior Recitals probably are the last college programs in which they will star, Miss Frank and Mr. O'Berry have set an imposing standard to be followed by other aspiring State singers.

BOILER ROOM

BLOW YOUR TOP HERE

A TALE OF WOE

To the Editor: This being my first term at State, I am naturally unfamiliar with the procedure of making out a program. So I took the advice of a friend and made an early appointment.

I got up with the chickens on that day and set out to school. Upon arriving at the registrar's office I was surprised to find a line longer than Boyer's at the Casbah, and I was given a card, number 3005.

At first I thought it was the Chesterfield man giving samples away, or possibly a representative from one of the give-away programs, but upon inquiring as to the reason for the motley conglomeration of humanity I was told they were all waiting for the same thing I was.

Being an altruist, I took my place in line and proceeded to wait in line with the rest of the crew. An hour slipped by, then two, and I began to feel like a neglected pooch.

Finally, after two more hours, my turn came. I was just about to go into the promised land when someone hung the "Out to Lunch" sign.

So I went to lunch; then I came back. And what do you know, there was another line waiting there. Only this time it was a little bit bigger, and it was double column.

As I write this, dear editor, I am still waiting in line. There's a rumor floating around that my turn will come any hour now—any day now.

I want to know, editor, is this part of the freshman initiation? If so, have I earned my beans? —Phil Ford.

BY HOOK OR CROOK

How to Corner Dream Man

By RAOUL G. SOSA Jr.

(Authority on Women Psychology.)

Want a man? It's easy, girls, if you listen to reason, and I can think of a million. Best foot forward, ready, let's go!

Suppose you simply can't wait to meet him, yet you don't want it to look like you're "throwing yourself at him." Patience and fortitude, and play your cards right.

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP

First step: You look in all directions and make sure no one is watching, least of all your friends. When the all-clear registers, you walk out from behind the bushes and parade up and down before him—just like they taught you in charm school—finally parking very close to him.

If after three or four sojourns, he still hasn't noticed you, take the bull by the horns. Drop a handkerchief, a purse, a valise; pull up a stocking, a bobby-sox, if necessary a faint. If you still get no results, write to Pegler.

Supposing, now, that another eager beaver is vying with you for his attentions—more than one can play the game—do you sulk, step on her bunions, call attention to the hole in her bobby-sox?

Uh, uh, let her have her inning, and it makes no difference whether she's "always pulling that on you." Remember the Golden Rule!

After the other girl has struck out—they all do in time—then you come in. But conservative. How to break the ice? Don't rush me!

THE SUBTLE WAY

A number of approaches are pertinent: You might ask him as to his health, but be careful not to convey the impression that you suspect him of being on his last legs. As for the health of his whole family, you needn't press it that far. He will probably snap back at you and tell you it's none of your business. And he's within his rights.

A curt "How are you?" is sufficient. None of that "Howthell are you?"

The weather is always a good, clean topic, but if you intend to attack him in this manner, be careful not to overload your vocabulary with two-bit words. Such clichés as "Do you think we'll have a cold wave during the winter solstice?" are in bad taste.

He knows you got a C in Astronomy.

"Nice day, isn't it?" is plenty of line and may eventually graduate into the initial step to the altar.

COLLEGES

Enrollments Reach Peak

A recent bulletin from the Intercollegiate Press brings us the following news concerning U. S. colleges.

For the third successive year the Nation's college and university enrollments have climbed to a new peak. Releasing enrollment figures furnished substantially all of the 1800 institutions of higher education in the United States, the U. S. Office of Education revealed that enrollments this Fall increased by over 72,000 students over last year, despite a drop of 100,000 in number of veterans enrolled.

Total enrollment in all colleges and universities is 2,410,000 this year. Of this number 486,267 are studying at 20 institutions. These twenty institutions enroll 20 per cent of all college students in the United States.

The rate of student drop-out is slowing down, according to the survey. This is indicated by the greater holding power of colleges, despite fewer freshmen students and a scaled-down veteran enrollment. Last year's freshmen enrollment stood at 593,000. This year only 569,000 freshmen are reported.

Veterans, who formed about half of the Nation's college student body in 1947, account for only 42 per cent of the total enrollment in 1948. Delaware, Florida, Maryland and New Mexico are the only States showing increases in the number of veteran students this year.

Greatest drop in veterans' enrollments came at the junior college level. Approximately 50 per cent of the veterans are enrolled in 131 of the country's large universities.

Men still outnumber women almost 3 to 1 in the Nation's colleges.

The proportion of women freshmen is slightly higher in 1948 than it was in 1947 in all types of institutions, the survey reveals.

TIME AND FORTUNE

WHERE'S KILROY?

Come, Ye All, to the Art Gallery

For the benefit of those students who have not had time or occasion to visit the art gallery, it is located next to Room 117 in Anderson Hall. In it one may find, upon looking in the proper places, the most realistic drawings—the most perfect prose.

The masterpieces bear no by-lines. Their creators work for the sake of art itself, ignoring personal fame or recognition. What heart and soul are put into the manifestations!

You who do not visit the art gallery will regret it. The creations are not eternal; they vanish into the walls, disappear with time. But the artists feel certain that at least a selected few of State's students will see their work. They know some will.

The room is easy to find. On its door it bears a three-letter, one-syllable word—"Men."

Potential Shelleys and Keats are hereby advised to refrain from immortalizing their epigrams on the walls of the rest rooms. Let's keep 'em clean.

Those students who persist in using the rest room cubicles as study halls are also asked to curtail the practice. Some people go there for more urgent reasons. No one likes to wait.

MOVIE REVIEW...

'Snake Pit' Rates Acclaim

By AL MARTINEZ

There arises occasionally in the movie world a picture that deserves a little more attention than is usually granted most movies. This particular picture merits both praise and damnation—but at least it is worthy of both. Such is "Snake Pit."

"Snake Pit" should be classified in the once-in-a-lifetime category. It is the inevitable aftermath of a series of cinema failures, terminating the lengthy list of bad tries.

With Olivia de Havilland in the starring role, the picture begins with the subtle characteristic of most poorly composed pseudo-psychological fallacies. But it unfolds with the beauty of life, finales in the tragedy of a mind given over to madness and ends in the simplicity and sincerity of actual existence—minus the clinch.

Cast as Virginia Cunningham, Miss de Havilland portrays a woman whose entity is taunted by the past, and whose present is subconsciously haunted by an early childhood.

Mentally disrupted by a nervous breakdown, Virginia is consigned to a State Hospital for the insane. And here she undergoes all the tortures given to a woman who has lost her place in society—each hell being a little worse than the one before. The psychiatric plot is carried out to a point of perfection by each individual actor—each of whom deserves an oscar for outstanding performance.

The soul of the plot is reality, and the theme deserves the praise which has been denied so many movies in the past.

Recommendation: See "Snake Pit." You won't be sorry.

SPORTS BEAT

By GORDON RADDUE

City College of San Francisco has a very unique intrascholastic athletic event scheduled for January 21, when its faculty takes on the sophomore class in a basketball game. On the surface, it sounds like prospective mayhem, pitting five pros against the students in such a grueling sport, but save your tears.

The faculty will have on its side such personalities as Ralph Hillsman, former California, Golden State and St. Mary's Pre-Flight guard; Roy Diedrichson, ex-Mission High All-City forward and San Jose State star; and Grover Klemmer, national quarter-mile champion of 1941 and also a former member of Nibs Price's Golden Bear quintet. All three, incidentally, are in excellent shape, so it should be quite an interesting battle.

A STAR IS BORN DEPT.: Ken Shelley, veteran soccer player and former president of Block S Society, made his debut as an actor last night at Frederic Burk Auditorium. He assumed the role of a swashbuckling seaman in Tim Haggerty's production of "Ile."

Also making an auspicious bow as a Thespian in the drama is J. Michael "Nifty" Finnigan, our loyal sports correspondent.

Two more ex-State physical education majors, Ernie Ribera and Merton Jones, have attained the status of full-fledged PE teachers in Northern California. Ribera is making men out of the boys at Jefferson High School in Daly City, while Jones is doing his instructing at Grant Technical High School in Sacramento.

Matmen Lose First Tussle To Cal Poly; Beat Gauchos

By BOB CALLAN

Coach Gustafson's early season prediction that Cal Poly was the "big one" this season proved to be right, as the star-laden Mustang squad defeated State matmen last Friday by a 21-15 score.

Don Burbank, John Holden and Joe Kimura were the only winners for the Gators. All were by quick pins, and little Joe Kimura's 30 second pin was the outstanding match of the evening.

Bouncing back the following night with a vengeance, the now-once-defeated Staters trounced Santa Barbara State, 35-5. The Gauchos managed to pick up only one victory, and that by a default, as Cliff Grey was injured and the match was stopped.

Garnering the other seven matches via pins by Burbank, Kimura, Friedman, Holden, Messerole, Call and DeGregorio, the San Francisco grapplers had a near-perfect evening.

Tonight at 7:30 in the Gym, State wrestlers present the first home meet of the season as they vie with San Jose State. The Spartans are rated as one of the best teams in Northern California.

Next Friday, January 21, at 7:30, Gator grapplers entertain the Stanford Indians in the Gym. Both meets feature junior varsity and varsity matches.

Gator Gals Play Full Athletic Slate

By FLORA AU Yong

The "full speed ahead" signal was given by Women's Athletic Association members in intramural and interschool competitive events during the Fall semester.

With University of California, Mills, Dominican, San Jose State, and the Northern California Field Hockey Association affording opposition in either swimming, bowling, badminton, tennis or field hockey, WAA players performed impressively in all activities, as their win-loss slate indicates.

GATORETTES TIP BEARS

In the first of scheduled outside activity on October 15, Gator badminton racquet wielders, boasting such standouts as Evelyn Pellaton, Sylvia Zeitlen, Buntly Caldwell and Sully Hansen downed the California Bears, five events out of six matches.

Led by its undefeated leader, Jeanne Contel, the tennis squad engaged California and Mills netters at their courts. Battling both teams to a draw, three up, local tennisists included Catherine Cain, Sally Hyde, Mary Martin, Helen Blount, Terry Allen, Ernie Moore, Jean Mohr and "All-Around Athlete" Peggie Rombach.

Augmented by new WAA members, Carrie Horvath, Olie Anson, Linda DeHaven, Francette Loftus, Mary Ann Evans, Patsy Elsener, Sully Hansen, Diane Fratus and Barbara Peters, field hockey received a new blood transfusion. In competing for the intramural flag, inexperience spelled the new group's downfall in attempting to capture the crown, which was eventually won by a versatile junior team of Mariann Bruneman, Jeanne Contel, Evelyn Bjugstad, Cathy Cain, Shari Shurbet, Scoop Tullis, Alice Brehl, Frances Brien and Flora Auyong.

Next Friday, January 21, at 7:30, Gator grapplers entertain the Stanford Indians in the Gym. Both meets feature junior varsity and varsity matches.

Without the services of departing senior, Doris Jo Foley, Gator paddlers were turned back in their only swimming date, October 16, by the more experienced Golden Bears at the Berkeley water-hole. Impressive, though defeated, were Peggie Rombach, Elizabeth Jane Hinz, Peggy Vasquez, Joyce Brown, May Pettingill, Marie Avila and Taunani Auyong.

In a bowling meet with California on December 10, keggers under Manager Shirley Sikol mingled with Bear bowlers for an afternoon of fun.

Baby Gator Cagers Face Poly Today

By TERRY SWEENEY

Riding the crest of a two-game winning streak, Coach Ray Kaufman's Junior Varsity basketballers tangle with Coach Gordon Carlson's Polytechnic hoopers on the Frederick Street school's court this afternoon. Tip-off time for the preliminary, featuring the State lightweights, is 3:30.

At this writing the Li'l Gators have won 12 and lost only four, while Poly has won its first two league games rather handily. The only basis of comparison between the teams is that they both have played Washington High. The Parrots triumphed, 33-25, while State split two decisions, each by three points.

BABY GATORS DEEP

The Li'l Gators are at their best strength of the season, and have at least two good men at every position, while depth is something that the Kezar kids lack.

PARROTS TALL

Big guns in the Parrot attack have been Tommy Doyle, a veteran; Merrill Jacobs, and elongated Wayne Barnes. In Barnes (6'4"), Dick Milkovich (6'3") the Parrots may possess a slight height advantage, and also have the advantage of playing on their own court, but the fast break and depth of the Gator squad should be able to counteract this.

On Friday, December 7, the State lightweights, led by Owen Kasha-veroff, trounced the Commerce lightweights, 62-36, while the JV regulars took care of the Commerce varsity in neat fashion, 84 to 58.

Swimmers Start Practicing Soon

Swimming practice will get under way next week at the Golden Gate YMCA, it was announced by Coach Harvey Williams. There will be openings for competitors in all styles and events, especially divers from the three-meter board, said Williams.

Swimmers will be given one unit of college credit, in addition to the chance of being awarded an athletic block. Experience is not necessary.

Team managers are Ferdinand Castillo and Irv Palasky. Anyone interested in joining the team can contact Coach Williams in Room 117, College Hall.

Mittmen Pair Off With Rams Tonight

By ED LEVITT

State's back busting tradesmen, sharpened by warm-up bouts with the California Bears last week, aim for revenge tonight when they battle City College mittmen at the Ocean Avenue Gym.

Fistivists start at 8. Nine bouts are on the card.

When the two squads met last month, the Gators suffered the ignominy of 10 losses in 14 matches. "Things will go differently tonight," Coach Ward Carr opined this week.

"Our boys have been training diligently for this one and they should be in the best of shape," Carr pointed out.

Besides the conditioning angle, Coach Carr has an ace up his sleeve in his new heavyweight prospect, Gene Fackler.

BATTLE OF NOVICES

Tonight's Card

- (S) Tony Jeong vs. Ken Soto (120 lbs.)
- (S) Sal Solina vs. John Fisher (125 lbs.)
- (S) Tom Yit vs. Len Garcia (130 lbs.)
- (S) Jack Campbell vs. Jerry Stern (135 lbs.)
- (S) Willard Abbott vs. Nick Cannulli (135 lbs.)
- (S) Mike De Gregorio vs. Joe Jackson (155 lbs.)
- (S) Dick Boyd vs. Darrell Victor (165 lbs.)
- (S) Don Gephart vs. Frank Sweuga (175 lbs.)
- (S) Gene Fackler vs. Jim O'Hare (heavyweight).

The fight should be a dandy as both boys have styles that make for plenty of action.

Another bout that should have the fistic filberts gleaming with delight is the Jack Campbell-Jerry Stern encounter.

The two lightweights waged a small war the last time they fought with Stern, the City College boy, winning the nod.

Campbell feels that he can square matters this time, but Stern rates the favorite on his previous win.

SHIFTY FIGHTER

Sassy Sal's experience and shiftiness gives him an edge over Fisher, who has yet to prove himself.

State's most consistent winner, Don Gephart, faces Frank Sweuga, a fast punching light heavy, in what should be a thriller.

Tide Meshers Visit Capital Tomorrow

After bagging its first pair of Far Western Conference games against Cal Aggies last week, State's smooth sailing basketball team draws a bye from loop action this weekend and tackles Sacramento State College tomorrow night at the Capitol City.

There is a possibility that ace Johnny Burton, sidelined with stomach cramps, may return to his forward berth to play alongside partner Dick Jaensch, who fattened his scoring average by netting 38 points in last week's series.

If "Jumping John" isn't right for the contest, his place will be filled by one of an able trio of forwards, consisting of Jimmy Wong, Dick Franks and Lou Pappas, all of whom showed well in games played against the Aggies.

Guards Tex Williford and Gus Skoufus, along with Center Angelo Maestri, will round out the starting combine, with Maestri switching to guard when Bill Callas enters the fray at the key-hole position.

The Golden Tide resumes its conference fight in a two-game series against Humboldt State at Kezar, to be played next Friday and Saturday nights.

Cindermen Start Work in February

By JOE HEATH

Initial track practice at the Cox oval is slated for Tuesday, February 8, disclosed head cindermentor Ray Kaufman this week.

It is hoped, said Kaufman, that the current cold wave will have subsided by then so the trackdads will have ample time to get in condition for the Marin and San Mateo J. C. meets, to be held at Lake Merced turf March 12 and 19, respectively.

According to Kaufman the following veterans of previous track wars will be back in the fold: Ed Bryan, dashes and hurdles; Bob Keropian, broad jump; Roy Ciappini, 440; Bill Brennan, half mile and mile; John Holden, two mile; Jack Root, Arf Arfsten, Herm Swirsky, shot put and discus; Jerry Friedman, two mile; Tom Carroll and Wally Stasek, pole vault; and George Cooper, high hurdles.

Outstanding new additions to the squad, according to Kaufman, are headed by Will Hines, 10 flat dash man, up from the jayvees; Chuck Crawford, sprinter and hurdler from Marin J. C.; and Tony Rivers and Bob McNemar, marathon enrollees.

Jayvee Footballers Primed For Varsity

By JOE FINNIGAN

In the wake of a successful Jayvee football season, Coach "Wild Bill" Harkness reports that he has discovered a good crop of material that should bolster the varsity for the '49 season. Harkness claims that he found sufficient strength in his line and backfield which should warrant a claim that the varsity will prove a threat in the Far Western Conference next season.

"Wild Bill" picked out several men for honors from the 1948 Jayvee squad, among them were: Team Captain, Jack Clark; most improved lineman, Knute Fjoslien; most improved back, Neal Kauffman; most dangerous back, Irving Edstrom; hardest running back, Vincent Custodio; best end, Owen Kasevaroff; best tackle, Thomas Finnigan; best guard, William Malmborg; best center, Roger Miller.

Three members of the Baby Gators who are to receive Block S awards as a result of three years of competition are: Sal Solina, August Marino, and Herbert Osuna.

Jaensch Sets New Scoring Standard As Team Wins Pair

By GORDON RADDUE

A record breaking scoring performance by Dick Jaensch, and a two-game sweep by State of its Far Western Conference opening series against Cal Aggies, made last weekend a joyous one for Gatorland.

Jaensch scalded the meshwork with 33 points, shattering his own one-game school scoring record of 29, to lead the men of Dan Farmer to a 63-57 win in last Friday's series opener, while Tex Williford's 13 points paced the Gators to an easy 56-46 success in Saturday's rematch.

JAENSCH IS FINE

"Deadly Dick" was at his best in the first game, as he attacked the hoop with unerring accuracy to keep his team in the game against a red-hot Mustang quintet, which for three-quarters of the game played as though Kezar was its home.

It looked for a while as though the Aggies, with their constant usage of the platoon system, would run the legs off the Gators, but the great rebound work of Gus Skoufus and the consistent scoring of Jaensch combined to keep State in the contest until Angelo Maestri finally tied up the tilt with nine minutes of play remaining. Jaensch broke the ice with a field goal and charity toss to give State a lead it never relinquished from there on.

MAESTRI STARS

Maestri followed the little forward in scoring with 14 points, in addition to turning in a steady floor game. Gordon Young, diminutive forward, and Guard Bob Hadley tied for scoring honors on the Aggie side of the ledger with 14 digits each.

The second game found the Gators push into a commanding lead at the start of the second half and coast in easy victors, after playing an even first half with the Mustangs.

With 30 seconds of play remaining in the first half, Lou Pappas and Williford deposited free throws into the hoop, to give State a 29-28 intermission lead.

TIDE PULLS OUT

The Gators opened the second session with a barrage of counters by Maestri, Jimmy Wong and Gus Skoufus to boost the margin to 37-28. The Mustangs were never in the battle from this point to the finish, as Skoufus again was king of the backboards, getting able assistance in this point of the game from Maestri and Williford.

Jimmy Wong turned in a beautiful passing game and trailed Williford's 13 markers with 10 of his own. Aggie Center, Grant Braun, stole game high point honors by dropping in four field goals and seven free throws for 15 points.

Mural Grid Final Is On Tap Monday

A touch football titanic will be staged on the upper field Monday, when Kappa Omega, National League champions, collide with the winner of the American circuit's title clash between Sigma Pi Sigma and the Vikings, which is to be held at noon today on the upper field.

The Omegas won their way into the finals by edging Mather Maulers, 6-0, in a thriller played last Friday. Mauler Ralph Azevedo provided the game with a wild climax, when on the last play of the game, he barely missed intercepting a pass just a few yards from the Omega goal with nothing but empty space in front of him.

In basketball, Bib 'n' Tucker has clinched first place in the Athletic Club League with four straight wins. Other loop leaders are Dolphins (3-0), Independent League; Christian Agatheans (2-0), Class League; and Kappa Omega (1-0), Fraternity-Sorority League.

Geiger Counter Aids In Recording Impulses

By DOROTHY C. LAVEAU

A conventional Geiger counter with a scaling circuit has been constructed for use in the Modern Physics 159 class under the direction of Leonard T. Pockman, assistant professor of physics. The scaling circuit is of the Wyn-Williams type and reduces the clicks heard per minute in the loudspeaker by a factor of exactly four.

This makes it possible for the students to count up to four hundred electrical impulses per minute in the Geiger tube itself. Without the scaling circuit, the upper limit of counting would be only one hundred per minute.

When the Geiger tube is isolated from radioactive materials it has a normal count of about one hundred per minute due to cosmic rays. When a radium sample is brought near the Geiger tube, the count increases very noticeably because of the gamma rays from the radium.

TRAVEL FAST

Gamma rays travel as fast as the speed of light and are electromagnetic waves just as light is. The wave length of the gamma ray wave is the order of ten thousand times shorter than the wave length of visible light. Alpha rays cannot penetrate the walls of the glass tube of the Geiger counter and therefore have no influence on the count.

The experiment performed with this apparatus was a measure of the absorbing power of aluminum sheets for gamma rays. The counting was done co-operatively by the class. The students determined the number of counts per minute with radium at a fixed distance from the Geiger tube.

RECORDER HELPS

This experiment can be greatly refined with the help of a mechanical counting recorder which the college has on order.

Papas Put Lessons To Practical Test

Miss Edna Fisher, assistant professor of zoology, reports that her Embryology class (Zoology 107) has been handling out the traditional cigars. The fathers are all doing well and are being feted with a dinner in their honor on January 18.

There were two boybies and three girlbies born to the wives of the eager beavers of Embryology. There is only one nail-biting, floor-pacer left, and he must have patience for another week.

Miss Fisher has been invited to accompany the proud parents at a dinner. The parents are: Messrs. and Mesdames Wallace Morgan, Alexander Wallace, John Eckenroed, and Robert Muir.

The newcomer will be the first addition in the Frank Prior family.

Spring to Bring Five New Faces

Five new faculty members will grace State campus come the Spring semester, according to President J. Paul Leonard.

Two instructors will be added to the psychology staff. They are: Mr. Donovan Swanson, instructor in psychology, who will be working in the General Education field, and Mrs. Anne Bradfield, part-time instructor in psychology.

Mr. Harold M. Graham will replace Mr. Arthur Hall in the chemistry department on a part-time basis. Mr. Hall is planning to complete his doctor's dissertation by working on the General Education program.

Mr. Herbert Klausmier will be an instructor in secondary education with emphasis on supervision in high schools. Mrs. Edith Merit, assistant professor of education, will emphasize elementary supervision.

East Bay Sorority Asks For Approval

A new sorority has been organized on the campus, according to Grace Gertmenian, member. It is Sigma Delta Gamma, service sorority for East Bay girls.

AIMS LISTED

Object of the organization, Miss Gertmenian stated, is "to be of general service to East Bay girls, and list the times that various rooms on the campus will be empty for study convenience. It was formed so East Bay girls could get to know each other on the basis of mutual interests."

The Sigma Delta Gamma constitution has been submitted to Dean Mary Ward and is now under consideration. Sponsor for the sorority is Mrs. Blanche Ellsworth, associate professor of English.

NEW OFFICERS

Officers were elected at a regular meeting last Monday night. They are: Martha Hammon, president; Maxine Irvin, vice-president; Marge Sandy and Anne Walker, secretaries; Jeanne Gidda, treasurer; and Marion Morton, historian. To date there are 25 charter members in the organization.

Leonard Joins Prexy Confab

President J. Paul Leonard departed early Wednesday morning to attend a meeting with the State Department of Education and Architecture and to meet with the legislative committee on education.

State college presidents will assemble for two days to discuss the future of State colleges.

Dr. Leonard took with him a document mapped by various San Francisco State College faculty members. It will set forth the entire projected building plan for this college, which will include: 13 new buildings, an area of 635,988 square feet, and a cost of twelve and one-half million dollars.

Phi Eta Chi Gets Rally Under Way

Phi Eta Chi, men's service fraternity, was the sponsor of the student body rally held yesterday in the Women's Gym. "Into the Gator's Mouth—Or Was it a Croc?" was the rally theme.

Under the direction of Harry Karpilow, fraternity president, the meeting featured tumblers, singers, skits and musical entertainment.

Ryan Asks For Assistants During Registration Week

CLUB NEWS Around Campus By Roy Ciappini

FREE WORLD CLUB—Hellmuth Dusedau, president of the Free World, announced this week a series of open forums to be held on the following subjects: "The American Dilemma," a discussion of the Negro problems as presented by Myrdal's book; "Heredity Versus Environment," a discussion of the Lysenko controversy; "Democracy," a comparison of socialist and capitalist democracy; and "Formalism in Music," a discussion of the composer and society.

Dates and speakers will be announced later, Dusedau added.

DELTA PHI Upsilon—Henry Hall, executive secretary of the California Teachers Association, spoke on the topic, "Teacher Recruitment" at a special meeting last week.

The last meeting of the semester will be held Monday with election of new officers, President Agnes Lynch announced yesterday.

ALPHA Omega—Installation of officers for Alpha Omega, service sorority, was held yesterday. New officers for the coming year are: Marion Millisich, president; Nancy Cunningham, vice-president; Rosemary Donohue, secretary-treasurer; Alice Conroy, corresponding secretary; Mary Ellen Butler, historian.

NEWMAN CLUB—Bud O'Hare, president, announced that plans are being made for a membership drive to be held the week of registration. All members are asked to do their part to help make the drive a success.

DELTA GAMMA Tau—According to Hank Marscheck, president of Delta Gamma Tau, service fraternity, the group will dine at Veneto's Sunday, at which time Fall pledges will be formally initiated and officers for the Spring term will be installed.

KAPPA THETA—Election of officers was the main part of the last meeting of Kappa Theta, service sorority. Taking office in February will be Carol Murphy, president; Joan McIntosh, vice-president; Claire Fratessa, treasurer; Rosemary Denike, recording secretary; B. J. Millar, corresponding secretary.

DELTA PHI GAMMA—Service fraternity, met Monday in the Activities Room. Officers were elected for next semester and committees were formed for the group's first campus dance, which will be held March 1.

Dean Sends S. O. S.

Dean Mary Ward sends an S.O.S. to all campus organizations that have not filed the dates for their Spring activities with her as yet. The Spring calendar is nearly completed, and as a copy will be printed for registration, the clubs should submit their petitions now in Room 105, College Hall.

BIB 'N' TUCKER—Fashion and service sorority, will go to Sugar Bowl for winter sports during the between-semester vacation.

Nominations for Spring officers were made at the last meeting at the home of Fran Grutman. The group is planning to help with registration next term.

I. R. C.—International Relations Club met Wednesday and elected officers for next semester. According to Art Padilla, the new officers are: Bob Smith, president; Dorothy Loger, recording secretary; Katherine Hock, corresponding secretary; Haig Rushdoony, treasurer; Bill Tobin, librarian; Honore Megino, historian.

ALPHA PHI GAMMA—At a meeting Monday evening, Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity, elected new officers for the Spring semester. Barbara Roberts will head the organization as president; Luisa Hepper, first vice-president; Lois Blackstone, second vice-president; Jean Heldoorn, secretary; Ed Levitt, treasurer; and Gil Dean, bailiff.

STUDENT AGATHEANS—The last meeting of the Agatheans this semester will be held Tuesday. A message will be given by Don Rosenberger, Navigator Representative. Officers will be elected for the Spring term.

A spaghetti feed, to be followed by a time of singing and fellowship at the home of one of the members, will be held on Wednesday evening.

PHI EPSILON GAMMA—At a formal initiation ceremony held at the Riviera Restaurant on December 19, President Margot Schmidt presented membership pins of Phi Epsilon Gamma, physical education sorority, to Doris Jo Foley, Audrey Reid, Mary Ellen Brennan, Bessie Provost, Thelma Van Sickle, Agnes Ashburn, Frances Brien and Barbara Lutz.

BLOCK S—The Lettermen's society met Tuesday in Hut 1-A and awarded President Ralph Azevedo a block S medal for his excellent work.

Plans were made to welcome the 46 new varsity lettermen who received awards at yesterday's rally into the group.

SIGMA PI SIGMA—More than 25 couples danced and dined at the Claremont Hotel last Sunday evening to terminate a day-long initiation program, in which Gil Dean, Harry McCrea and Tony Morrow were admitted as new members to Sigma Pi Sigma, oldest service fraternity on campus.

Drama Tryouts Are in Progress

A College Theatre production of the play "Yellow Jack" is being scheduled for the Spring semester. J. Fenton McKenna, who is directing the production, has been conducting preliminary tryouts for the past week. The play, which boasts 24 scene changes, deals with the development of medical techniques to combat malaria.

"This play is one of our contemporary classics, carrying a carefully delineated story of one of science's greatest fights and greatest victories," commented Dr. McKenna.

Student Lounge Gets Hut Seats

Students who have nurtured the idea of adding a little class to the State campus can rest more easily. The drive which began with the painting and "redecorating" of various huts has reached the climax in the booths which have been added to the Student Lounge.

Last Saturday four new booths were added to Hut 5, reported Mrs. Erna Lehan, Cafeteria manager, who instigated the drive which ended in the appearance of the new furniture.
